

Kilian Peña 1 BATX A A TEAR FOR EACH PETAL

A red rose on a special day, full of memories, without any way, just some heartbreaking memories which i can't stop to squeeze.

One petal less of the rose for those happy moments that I have for purpose when this nightmare ends.

Two petals less of the flower when I could feel that power of be able to express love without a screen above.

Only one petal left,
of that rose over the book abandoned over a roof, for every feeling into my chest.
